The 15-Credit Public Policy and Oral Health Services Administration Certificate can help you advance your knowledge and skills to address major oral health issues facing public health professionals today. Courses explore topics in dental health care administration, dental health management, research methods and program planning and evaluation.

THE PUBLIC POLICY AND ORAL HEALTH SERVICES ADMINISTRATION CERTIFICATE IS INTENDED FOR:

- ▶ Health department employees;
- ▶ Those interested in a public health career;
- ▶ Oral health professionals interested in enhancing their dental public health knowledge; and
- ▶ Health professionals who wish to build their dental public health knowledge.

PROGRAM DESIGN

The schedule for completing the Public Policy and Oral Health Services Administration Certificate is flexible. You can complete the program in two-three semesters, if desired, or you can plan a schedule for completing the five courses over a two-year period (the maximum timeframe.) The evening schedule makes it convenient for you to continue working or gain experience while earning your Public Policy and Oral Health Services Administration Certificate. The Certificate courses may also be applied toward a MPH at the Rutgers School of Public Health. (Certificate holders must still apply and be admitted to the MPH program.)

COST

Tuition is governed by Rutgers University and is subject to change annually. Please visit sph.rutgers.edu/admissions to confirm current tuition rates and fees.
