

PRACTICE EXPERIENCE CREDIT

Matriculated MPH students in the School of Public Health who are also residents in preventive medicine, occupational medicine, aerospace medicine and public health or general preventive medicine programs completing their academic year in the School of Public Health may be awarded six Fieldwork credits for their Resident Practicum Experience. The student must initiate the application process for the Practice Experience Credit by providing the information requested and returning this form to their Campus Office after obtaining appropriate signatures. Approved Practice Experience Credit (Fieldwork) will be noted on the transcript after students complete, at a minimum, nine months of their residency practicum year. (Please refer to the Policy of the School of Public Health entitled, Award of Credit for Practice Experience Equivalent to Fieldwork for Preventive/Occupational Medicine Residents, for more information.)
