

SEEKING INTERVENTIONISTS/THERAPISTS
FOR A NIAAA-FUNDED ALCOHOL USE DISORDER (AUD)
TREATMENT PROJECT

Opportunity to learn Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT) or Motivational Enhancement Therapy (MET) via group and individual training with possible part-time employment on an alcohol treatment research study at Rutgers School of Public Health, New Brunswick.

Qualifications: Clinically relevant Master's degree or enrollment in a clinical doctoral program (e.g., psychology, social work, counseling)

Preferred: Clinical experience working with alcohol use disorder (AUD) clients

If interested, please contact: Christine M. Davis, Ph.D.
School of Public Health
Health Education & Behavioral Science

Email: christine.davis@rutgers.edu

Phone: 732-235-9795