

Racism in America Resource Guide

Rutgers School of Public Health

This Resource Guide was developed to provide our faculty, staff, students and community with resources that address racism in the United States as it relates to black and brown communities. The Guide provides information and a starting point to learn about American history, racism, inclusion, anti-oppression and privilege. It also The Guide is by no means exhaustive and will be periodically updated.

If you have resources you would like to include, please submit them to the School's Office for Equity, Diversity & Inclusion at diversityandinclusion@sph.rutgers.edu
