I. New: Youth Climate Education Summit for NJ and NY is February 8-12, 2021

The Youth Climate Education Summit is February 8-12, 2021, starting at 3:30 PM ET daily. The Summit is organized by the Center for Sustainable Development at the Earth Institute Columbia University in partnership with New Jersey Audubon and the National Wildlife Federation in New York City. The main objective of this weeklong Summit is to increase awareness about local environmental issues in the two States and to encourage community activism thought citizen science and other approaches, and raise youth awareness of career paths in sustainability and environmental education. This Summit will have opportunities for discussion with world-renowned economists such as Dr. Jeffrey Sachs (Columbia University Earth Institute's Director and Professor), marine biologists, and NY Times Reporter and Earth Institute's journalist Mr. Andrew Revkin. There will be workshops to enhance environmental skills that will be helpful to play an active role in your communities to resolve sustainability issues. It is a great opportunity to open your minds to the possibilities in research and activism. Keynote Speakers include NJ First Lady Tammy Murphy who is spearheading Climate Change Education as an integral topic in NJ's school curriculum.

Courses paid by credit card are eligible for a full refund upon cancellation in 2021. There are no refunds for courses paid by personal check or district/school check in advance; however, you may move to another open training date for the same course in the same calendar year. If you must, for a documented reason agreed to by NJ Safe Schools Program, delay completion of course(s), then we strongly suggest a delay of one cohort time period. We will handle specific requests on a case-by-case basis, in consultation with the NJDOE.
