

WELCOME TO R | RUTGERS HEALTH School of Public Health

CHECK OUT THESE 6 THINGS STUDENTS CAN DO WHILE THEY WAIT FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT ONLINE ORIENTATION AND ONBOARDING

1 ACTIVATE RUTGERS NETID & SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH EMAIL ADDRESS

Visit netid.rutgers.edu to set up your log in information to gain access to all your Rutgers platforms. Once activated, wait 24 hours before attempting to access your MyRutgers dashboard.

Next, activate your SPH email service and make sure to generate an sph.rutgers.edu email address. Then, under “Service Activation”, ensure that “Rutgers Connect Office 365” account is active. You can access your SPH email account at connect.rutgers.edu.

2 AWAIT ONBOARDING LETTER

Starting May 22, onboarding letters will be sent via email from our SPH Office for Student Experiences & Alumni Affairs.

Letters will include advisor assignment, online orientation details, and registration procedures.

3 REGISTER FOR FALL 2024

New students can reach out for registration advisement after they receive their onboarding letter and are assigned an academic advisor. Registration for incoming students opens on June 3. Fall 2024 courses begin September 3.

What you need to register?

Active NetID
Registration PIN
Course Advisement

Who provides advisement?

Academic Advisor
The Office of the Registrar does not provide PINs or advisement.

4 CHECK ELIGIBILITY FOR FINANCIAL AID

Students registered for 4.5 credits and are US citizens are eligible for financial aid.

To apply, you must file the 2024-2025 FAFSA and follow the instructions for Rutgers Health/RBHS students on the OFA website.

5 PAY STUDENT BILL ON TIME

Student bills for Fall 2024 are issued in mid-July and are due on September 3.

Tuition and fee rates will be available on our website.

Your MyRutgers dashboard will display your student bill.

6 COMPLETE VISA REQUIREMENTS

International students should email RBHS Rutgers Global for questions about their visa status, I-20 forms, and options for courses.
