

Application for Practicum Credit: For Applied Practice Experience and Practicum Capstone

Matriculated MPH students who are also residents in preventive medicine, occupational medicine, or general preventive medicine programs completing their academic year in the School of Public Health may satisfy the MPH PRAC 0715: Applied Practice Experience (0-credits) and PRAC 0716: Practicum Capstone (3-credits) requirements in conjunction with their Resident Practicum Experience. After completing the prerequisite courses (PHCO 0502 and PHCO 0504) for PRAC 0715, students must initiate the application process for PRAC 0715 and PRAC 0716 credit by submitting this form. Approved PRAC 0715 and PRAC 0716 credit will be noted on the transcript after students submit ALL required and necessary deliverables for both PRAC 0715 and PRAC 0716. The Office of Student Experiences, Public Health Practice and Alumni Affairs will confirm completion and submission of all deliverables.

I wish to initiate the application process for PRAC 0715: Applied Practice Experience and PRAC 0716: Practicum Capstone Credit.
