

Senator Julian Cyr

Julian Cyr (pronouns he/him/his) serves in the Massachusetts Senate representing Cape Cod, Martha's Vineyard, and Nantucket. First elected to the State Senate in November 2016, Julian is now serving in his fifth term and is among the youngest senators in the 40-member body. Prior to his election, Julian honed his skills in public policy and service at the Massachusetts Department of Public Health and as chair of the Massachusetts Commission on LGBTQ+ Youth. He interned at the White House, contributing to green jobs policy in the Obama Administration. Additionally, he has worked for the Clinton Global Initiative and as a harm-reduction counselor.

Julian's leadership also goes beyond his legislative accomplishments. He convened the Cape Cod Reopening Task Force to create a coordinated response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Julian graduated with a degree in public policy and community health from New York University and from the David Bohnett Leaders Fellowship at Harvard Kennedy School's Senior Executives in State and Local Government program.
