

Achilles Vergis, JD

Achilles Vergis, JD, is a Director in Alliance Management at Kyowa Kirin, a global specialty pharmaceutical company, where he leads governance and strategic execution across a portfolio of partnerships advancing novel medicines and treatments. He supports high-priority collaborations in hematologic malignancies and respiratory disease, working with cross-functional teams and senior leaders across North America and Japan.

Originally trained as a lawyer, Achilles began his career as a litigation attorney before moving into the life sciences industry. He previously supported global development work at Bristol Myers Squibb and has spent the past five years at Kyowa Kirin building expertise in alliance management, partnership governance, and cross-cultural collaboration.

Achilles earned his Juris Doctor from New York Law School and his Bachelor of Science from St. John's University. He is admitted to practice law in New York and New Jersey.
